Solar Trip

01. Genesis

(Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals / Leonie Klapitz : Saxophone

1: In the beginning, there was darkness, an empty void,
Then came a voice, a whisper in the cosmic noise,
From the depths of nothingness, a spark of creation,
A symphony of light, the birth of a new vibration

Ch: Genesis, the dawn of time,
A tale of wonders, a celestial rhyme,
Where worlds collide and stars align,
In the dance of life, the genesis sublime

2: From the dust of stars, the galaxies unfurled,
Planets took their places, a celestial carousel,
Life emerged from the primordial clay,
A tapestry of existence, a grand display

3: Through the eons, evolution's gentle hand,
Species arose, diversity did expand,
From single cells to creatures of great might,
The story of creation, shining in the light

O: In the cycle of creation, we all play a part,
Writing our own chapters with love in our heart,
For in the genesis of each new day,
We find the power to make our own way.

02. Dance with Saturn

(Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

1: Oh, let me tell you a tale, a cosmic delight,
About Saturn, the planet that dances in the night,
With rings of beauty, spinning 'round so free,
In the samba rhythm, it moves magically.

2: In Saturn's vibrant atmosphere, colors unite,
From fiery reds to blues, a celestial sight,
Its winds are like a beat, pulsating through the air,
As the samba dancers sway, without a care.
Ch: Saturn, oh Saturn, the samba in the sky,
Twirling and swirling, as the stars pass by

3: Saturn's rings shimmer like a dancer's attire,
Reflecting the light, setting hearts afire,
And as the night unfolds, the party's just begun,
Samba with Saturn, until the rising sun
Ch: Saturn, oh Saturn, the samba in the sky,
Twirling and swirling, as the stars pass by

O: So, let us embrace the dance of Saturn's delight,
In the samba's embrace, we'll dance through the night,
With Saturn as our partner, we'll reach for the stars,
Samba on, dear friends, wherever you are!
Ch: Saturn, oh Saturn, the samba in the sky,
Twirling and swirling, as the stars pass by

03. Red Planet (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

Ch: Mars, oh Mars - you call my name,
A world so different - yet the same.
I'll journey - to your rocky land,
My heart is beating fast - I'll take your hand.

1: Red planet - up in the sky,
Mars, oh Mars - you catch my eye.
Your dusty surface - so intriguing,
I want to explore - can't stop this feeling

Br: With ev'ry step - I'll feel your power,
As I explore - hour by hour.
I'll look up at your rusted sky,
And I know that I'll never say goodbye.

2: You're cold - barren and desolate,
But your mysteries I can't escape.
Did you once have oceans - life, and more?
I want to know, - I'll search your floor

Ch: Mars, oh Mars - you call my name,...

O: Red planet - up in the sky,
Mars, oh Mars - you catch my eye.
I'll keep searching - until I'll find,
The secrets you hold - in your mind

04. Moon of Wonders

(Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Leonie Klapitz : Saxophone / Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

1: In the realms of heaven, a tale to be told,
A moon of wonder, a story of old,
you shine so bright in the celestial sea,
A world of mystery, come dance with me.

Ch: You are a moon of grace and light,
A jewel in the sky, your beauty takes flight,
Oh, Ganymed, let your secrets unfold,
In your ethereal embrace, our spirits enfold

2: High above in the clouds, where dreams ascend,
Ganymed, you enchant us like a celestial friend,
With icy plains and canyons wide,
Your landscapes beckon, a cosmic guide

3: Among the Jovian dance, where giants reside,
Ganymed, you traverse the cosmic tide,
A sanctuary of possibilities abound,
Where dreams and fantasies are found

Ch: You are a moon of grace and light,
A jewel in the sky, your beauty takes flight,
Oh, Ganymed, let your secrets unfold,
In your ethereal embrace, our spirits enfold

05. In the Mists of Jupiter (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals , Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Leonie Klapitz : Trumpet, Saxophone

1: In the depths of space, where dreams collide,
There's a planet of wonder, where mysteries reside,
Jupiter's calling, with a beckoning haze,
A symphony of mists, through the cosmic maze

Ch: Oh, the mists of Jupiter, they dance and they sway,
A celestial ballet, in shades of astral gray

2: Through swirling vapors, a canvas of dreams,
Whispers of legends and celestial themes,
Jupiter's embrace, a captivating sight,
Guiding our spirits, through the dark of the night.

Ch: Oh, the mists of Jupiter, they dance and they sway,
A celestial ballet, in shades of astral gray

3: A symphony of gases, in a cosmic ballet,
Whispers of Jupiter, guiding us on our way,
In these veils of enchantment, we'll boldly roam,
Exploring the depths of Jupiter's celestial home.

O: As the mists of Jupiter fade into the abyss,
We carry their essence, a celestial kiss,
For in our hearts, their enchantment remains,
A testament to wonders, our universe contains

06. Mercurium

(Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals , Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

1: In the cosmic dance, a world so bright,
A shimmering gem, in the depths of night,
A planet of fire, where dreams ignite,
Mercurium, oh, you shine so tight

PC: A swift celestial messenger,
Your orbit's grace, a cosmic traveler,
Closest to the Sun's golden fire,
In your embrace, we feel inspired

Ch: Mercurium, Mercurium,
Your surface gleams with radiantium,
Mercurium, Mercurium,
A blazing ball of mysteriousium

Br: Beneath your surface, secrets hide,
Frozen waters, forever denied,
Yet in your core, a spirit resides,
The essence of life, it won't subside ,

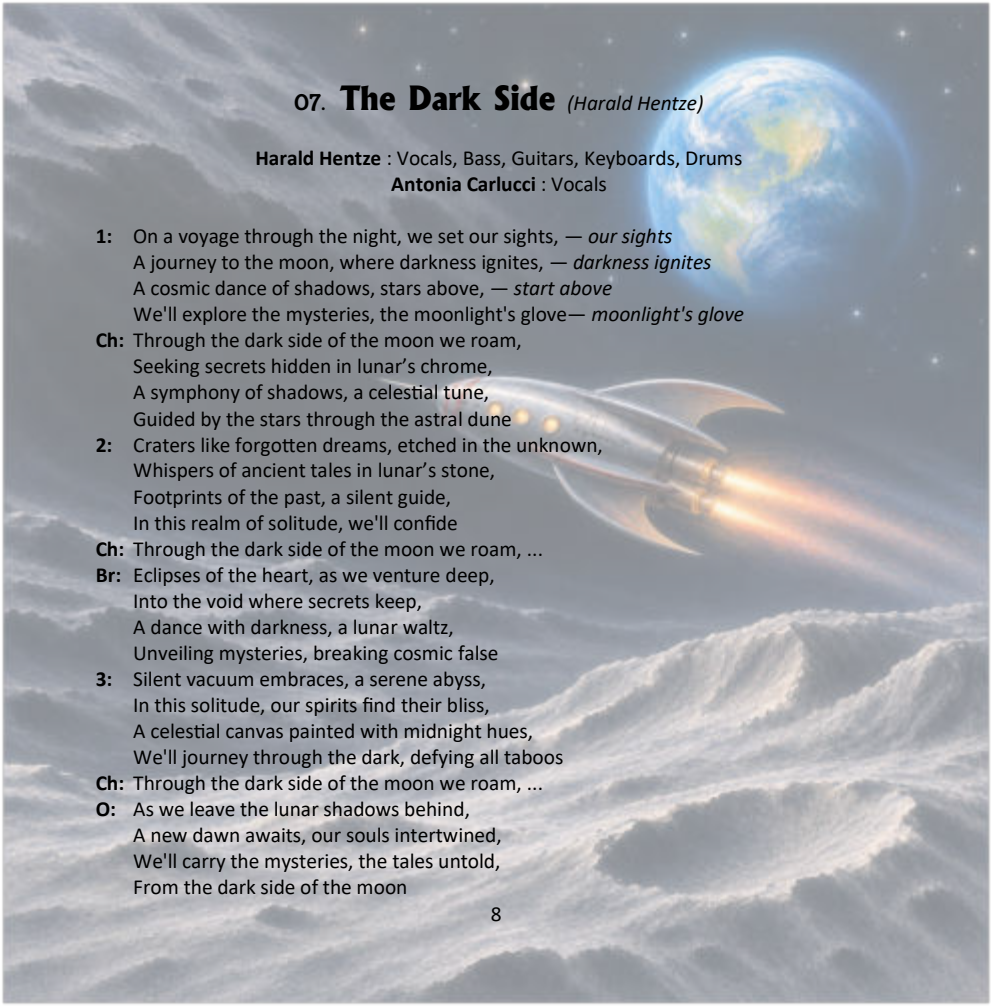

2: On your scorched plains, we roam free,
Chasing shadows, what do we see?
A world of contrasts, it's meant to be,
A dance with darkness and light's decree

PC: A swift celestial messenger, ...
Ch: Mercurium, Mercurium, …

Va: Mercurium, Mercurium,
A blazing ball of mysteries
Mercurium, Mercurium,
A mystery -
A blazing ball of mysteries

PC: A swift celestial messenger, ...
Ch: Mercurium, Mercurium, …

O: Red In the twilight's glow, we bid farewell,
Mercurium, your tales we'll retell,
Until we meet again, in cosmic spell,
You'll remain in our hearts,
- oh Mercurium

07. The Dark Side (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

1: On a voyage through the night, we set our sights, — our sights
A journey to the moon, where darkness ignites, — darkness ignites
A cosmic dance of shadows, stars above, — start above
We'll explore the mysteries, the moonlight's glove— moonlight's glove
Ch: Through the dark side of the moon we roam,
Seeking secrets hidden in lunar's chrome,
A symphony of shadows, a celestial tune,
Guided by the stars through the astral dune
2: Craters like forgotten dreams, etched in the unknown,
Whispers of ancient tales in lunar's stone,
Footprints of the past, a silent guide,
In this realm of solitude, we'll confide
Ch: Through the dark side of the moon we roam, ...
Br: Eclipses of the heart, as we venture deep,
Into the void where secrets keep,
A dance with darkness, a lunar waltz,
Unveiling mysteries, breaking cosmic false
3: Silent vacuum embraces, a serene abyss,
In this solitude, our spirits find their bliss,
A celestial canvas painted with midnight hues,
We'll journey through the dark, defying all taboos
Ch: Through the dark side of the moon we roam, ...
O: As we leave the lunar shadows behind,
A new dawn awaits, our souls intertwined,
We'll carry the mysteries, the tales untold,
From the dark side of the moon

08. Dark Materials (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums / Antonia Carlucci : Vocals

1: Invisible threads through galaxies they weave,
Binding the cosmos where no eye can perceive.
We've always been where silence has begun.
You only see the stars, never what holds them on.
PC: Gravity whispers, a cosmic lullaby. In the tapestry of space where worlds multiply
Ch: Dark matter and dark energy, - Ever hidden... dancing in the night, - Ever near...
Unseen but felt, - Every heartbeat of the sky... their power takes flight. - You can feel us, though we're never seen.
In the depths of the universe, they silently play,
Shaping the cosmos in their own mysterious way... mysterious way ,
2: Invisible threads through galaxies they wind,
Binding the cosmos no eye can ever find.
You search for answers... Yet measure only light.
PC: Gravity whispers a cosmic lullaby, In the tapestry of space, where worlds multiply ,
Ch: Dark matter and dark energy, - Ever hidden…
Br: The shadows in the void stretch silently afar, We never pull the stars.
Guiding the stars to their heavenly home. We simply let them dance.
A cosmic riddle, an unending quest, To fathom the depths of what manifests.
Names are only yours... The mystery is ours...
3: Invisible hands sculpting galaxies afar,
From the darkest of matter to the brightest star.
We are the silence, Between every light.
A symphony of forces, in harmony they sing,
Dark materials in the cosmos, an eternal fling
Ch: Dark matter and dark energy, - Ever moving…
O: As we sail across the endless sea of stars… The journey has only begun...

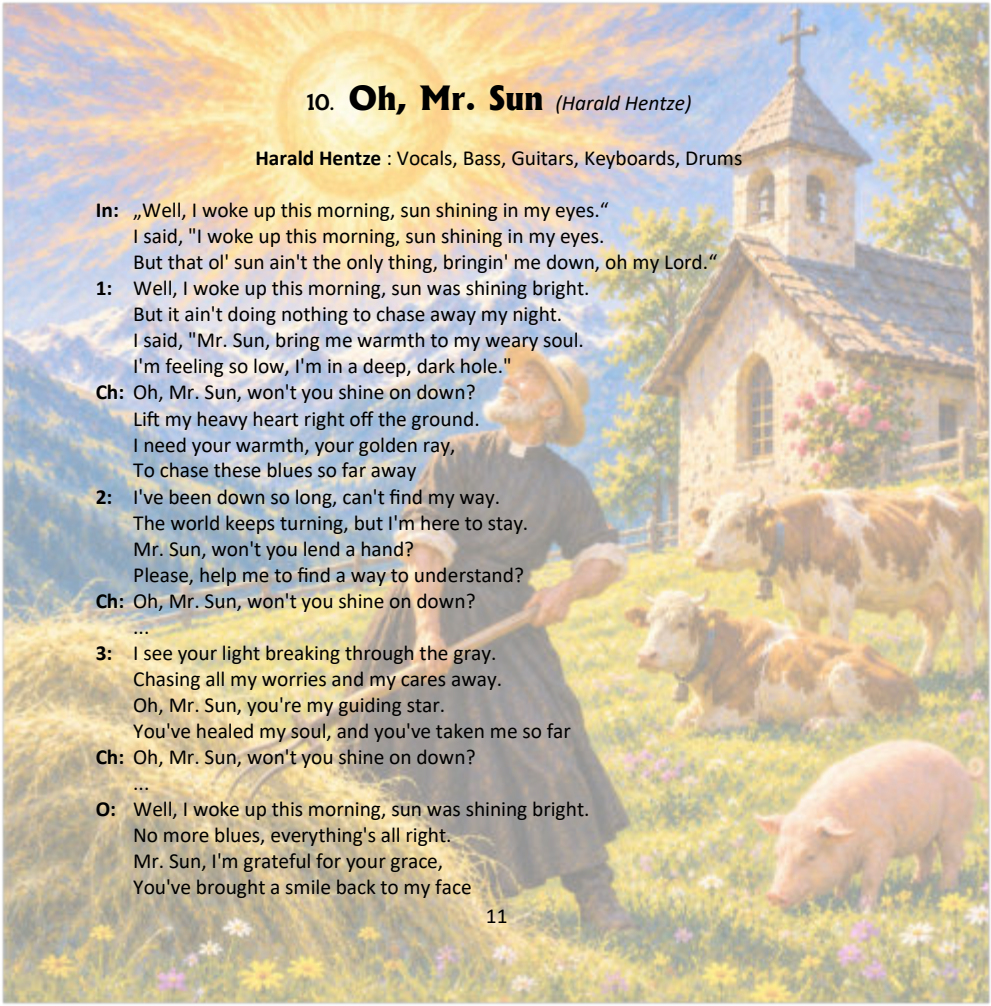

09. Solar Trip

(Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals , Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals / Leonie Klapitz : Saxophone

1: On a journey through the stars, we'll embark,
Across the cosmic expanse, a celestial spark,
We're explorers of the skies, dreamers bold,
In our spacecraft of wonder, our stories unfolds
2: With each planet we pass, it's a new delight,
A kaleidoscope of colors, an endless flight,
Through the vastness of the space, we roam,
In the embrace of our universe, we'll find our home.
Ch: We're on a trip through our solar system,
With stardust in our eyes, we'll surely glisten,
From Mercury's scorch to Neptune's blue,
Every planet's a wonder, a dream come true
3: The sun, our guiding star, beams so bright,
As we venture through the vastness of night.
Beyond the planets, the comets race,
Leaving trails of wonder in their chase
Ch: We're on a trip through our solar system,
With stardust in our eyes, we'll surely glisten,
From Mercury's scorch to Neptune's blue,
Every planet's a wonder, a dream come true
O: In this cosmic symphony, we find our place,
A speck of dust in the vastness of space,
Yet connected to the stars, we're not alone,
On this trip through the heavens, we've grown.

10. Oh, Mr. Sun (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums

In: „Well, I woke up this morning, sun shining in my eyes.“
I said, "I woke up this morning, sun shining in my eyes.
But that ol' sun ain't the only thing, bringin' me down, oh my Lord.“

1: Well, I woke up this morning, sun was shining bright.
But it ain't doing nothing to chase away my night.
I said, "Mr. Sun, bring me warmth to my weary soul.
I'm feeling so low, I'm in a deep, dark hole."

Ch: Oh, Mr. Sun, won't you shine on down?
Lift my heavy heart right off the ground.
I need your warmth, your golden ray,
To chase these blues so far away

2: I've been down so long, can't find my way.
The world keeps turning, but I'm here to stay.
Mr. Sun, won't you lend a hand?
Please, help me to find a way to understand?

Ch: Oh, Mr. Sun, won't you shine on down?

3: I see your light breaking through the gray.
Chasing all my worries and my cares away.
Oh, Mr. Sun, you're my guiding star.
You've healed my soul, and you've taken me so far

Ch: Oh, Mr. Sun, won't you shine on down?
...

O: Well, I woke up this morning, sun was shining bright.
No more blues, everything's all right.
Mr. Sun, I'm grateful for your grace,
You've brought a smile back to my face

11. Black Holes (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums

Ch: Black holes in universe, an enigma of space.
Invisible giants where time and light erase.
We'll explore their mysteries with wonder and grace.
In the infinite expanse, hold their rightful place

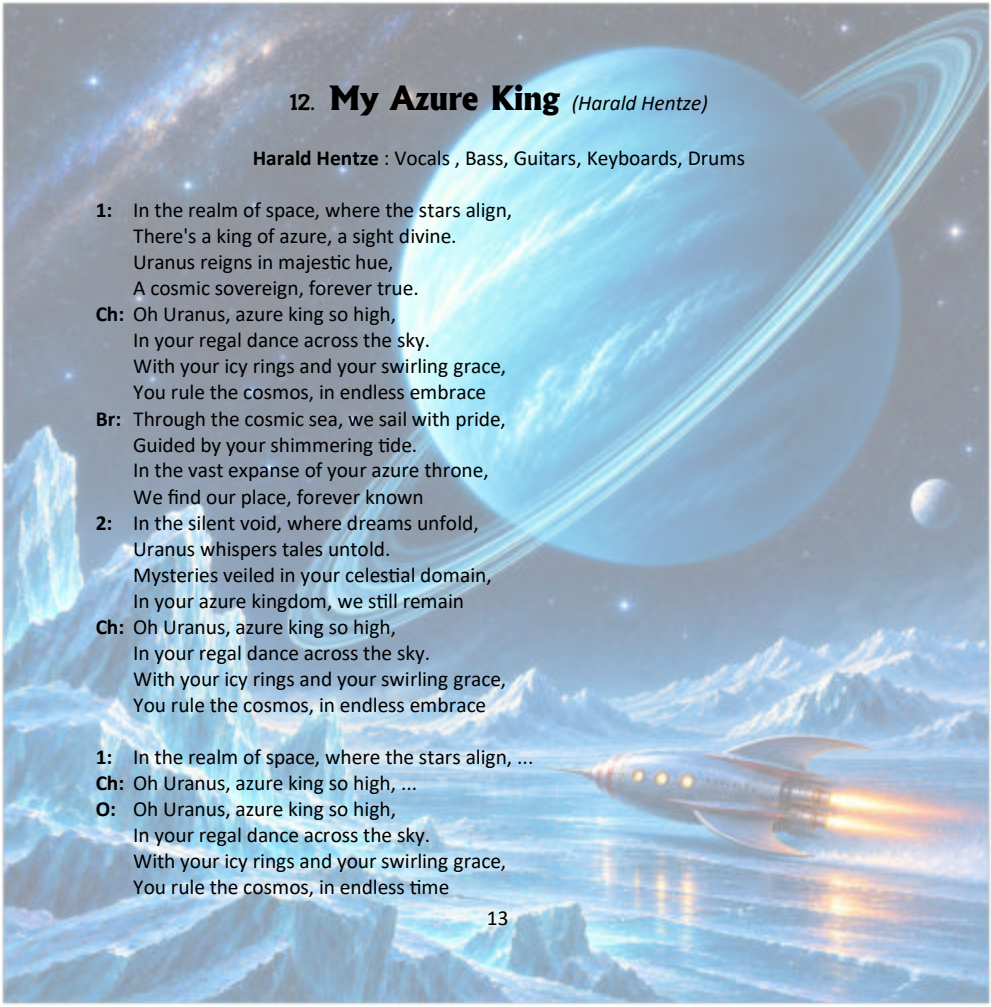

1: In the universe, far away, there's a mystery unfolds.
A cosmic appearance, where's a story yet untold.
Black holes in the universe, so vast and profound.
A brute force of nature, where no light can be found

2: In the heart of galaxies, that they silently reside.
A gravitational pull, where that stars and planets hide.
Beyond event horizon, a point of no return.
A journey into darkness, a lesson we were learn

Ch: Black holes in universe, an enigma of space.
Invisible giants where time and light erase.
We'll explore their mysteries with wonder and grace.
In the infinite expanse, hold their rightful place

3: They may be invisible, but their presence is felt.
A cosmic riddle, where all reality melt.
Black holes in the universe, a marvel to behold.
In the cosmic painting, their story unfolds

Ch: Black holes in universe, an enigma of space.
Invisible giants where time and light erase.
We'll explore their mysteries with wonder and grace.
In the infinite expanse, hold their rightful place

12. My Azure King (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals , Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums

1: In the realm of space, where the stars align,
There's a king of azure, a sight divine.
Uranus reigns in majestic hue,
A cosmic sovereign, forever true.
Ch: Oh Uranus, azure king so high,
In your regal dance across the sky.
With your icy rings and your swirling grace,
You rule the cosmos, in endless embrace
Br: Through the cosmic sea, we sail with pride,
Guided by your shimmering tide.
In the vast expanse of your azure throne,
We find our place, forever known
2: In the silent void, where dreams unfold,
Uranus whispers tales untold.
Mysteries veiled in your celestial domain,
In your azure kingdom, we still remain
Ch: Oh Uranus, azure king so high,
In your regal dance across the sky.
With your icy rings and your swirling grace,
You rule the cosmos, in endless embrace

1: In the realm of space, where the stars align, ...
Ch: Oh Uranus, azure king so high, ...
O: Oh Uranus, azure king so high,
In your regal dance across the sky.
With your icy rings and your swirling grace,
You rule the cosmos, in endless time

13. Neptune‘s Veil (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums

In: Far beyond Saturn’s ring…
There’s a place where voices don’t echo
Just orbiting thoughts in a frozen blue sleep

1: Drifted past the final moon
Light bent back into itself
The silence here is absolute
A gravity of thought I’ve never felt
No signal, no return
My memory’s starting to blur
Neptune wears a veil of blue
That pulls me in without a word

Pc: A shimmer in the methane mist
A figure made of glass and breath
It tells me I was never missed
And sings a song of quiet death

Ch: Through the veil of Neptune I fall
Weightless in a world so small
All I was begins to break
In Neptune’s dream I stay awake

2: Through Triton spins, an empty sound
Forgotten moon in frozen light
My pulse slows down to match the ground
My voice is lost in endless night
I see myself, but not the same
Reflected in an ocean’s eye
The static whispers speak my name
But they don’t ask me why

3: Through I reached the place where time dissolves
Where gods decay and silence grows
I touched the core, a breathless sphere
That no one leaves and no one knows

Pc: A shimmer in the methane mist …

Ch: Through the veil of Neptune I fall
No signal left, no one to call
The cold embraces, softly cruel
And drowns the noise inside this fool

Br: Through I wear the silence like a crown
In Neptune’s sea, I slowly drown
And though I’m gone, I somehow stay
A shadow drifting far away

O: I was light… I was dust… I was nothing...
Now I’m Neptune’s echo…
...still listening...

14. Voyagers of the Galaxy (Harald Hentze)

Harald Hentze : Vocals, Bass, Guitars, Keyboards, Drums
Antonia Carlucci : Vocals / Leonie Klapitz : Saxophone

1: Through the vast unknown, we soar,
Leaving all we've known before.
Stars ignite, the night is ours,
We're chasing dreams among the stars
Ch: We're voyagers of the galaxy,
Riding waves of light, eternally.
Hearts aligned with the cosmic tide,
In this endless space, side by side
2: Planets rise in our view,
A dance of light in shades of blue.
Nebulae like whispered tales,
Guide us through the stellar trails
Ch: We're voyagers of the galaxy, ...
Ch: We're voyagers of the galaxy, ...
3: Beyond the edge of time, we'll find,
Secrets of the universe unwind.
Together, we'll writing history,
In the stars, our legacy.
Ch: We're voyagers of the galaxy, ...
O: We are voyagers of the galaxy,
Riding waves of light, eternally.
We travel floating through the vast unknown.
In its silence, we linger in space' domain
